mapping the landscape of independent eateries.

Welcome to Dine Indie!

Someone in your community has added you to our website for independent restaurants. No chains are on DineIndie.com, only the best independent bars, cafes, B&B's, and more!

Your new Dine Indie listing is a valuable tool for gaining (and keeping) new customers. At the same time, you are part of a cooperative which encourages people to support local businesses and avoid large, corporate chains.

We are relentless advocates for independent restaurant owners and we are delighted to have you on our site! Your Dine Indie website will give you a competitive edge, as you'll benefit from our targeted radio, print, and online advertising campaigns.

You can view your new free listing at DineIndie.com. If you choose to grow your listing into a full-featured listing, and you were referred by someone, be sure and enter their name after you click the grow listing button.

Going out tonight? Skip the chains and Dine Indie!
